

Nancy Smith Elementary School
Title I Parent Compact
2021-2022 School Year

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Nancy Smith Elementary and the parents of students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) agree that this compact outlines how the parents, school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the state's high standards. This school-parent compact is in effect during the 2021-2022 school year.

School Responsibilities

Nancy Smith Elementary will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the state's student academic achievement standards.
2. Hold parent-teacher conferences annually during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress.
4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff.
5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitor student attendance.
- Make sure that homework is completed.
- Participate in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Stay informed about my child's education and will communicate with the school.
- Serve to the extent possible on policy advisory groups and school committees.

Nancy Smith Elementary understands the importance of parents and teachers working collaboratively to ensure the highest levels of academic success throughout the school year. We look forward to continued success at Nancy Smith Elementary working hand in hand with our parents and community members.
